Remaining Indictments Dismissed on Motion of Commonwealth's Attorney.

LAST OF THE PROSECUTION.

Action Was Taken on the Last Day of the Circuit Court.

On the last day of circuit court on motion of Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith, the two remaining night rider cases in the Christian county circuit court against Dr. David A. Amos, of Cobb, were dismissed. All of those against other defendants were dismissed earlier in the term.

The reasons given for this action were that whether the acquittal on one indictment was a bar to further prosecution is a question that the Court of Appeals would have to decide, but even if it was not a bar he adds, "I am of the opinion that on account of all of the circumstances and conditions now existing no good would result by further prosecution."

These are the last of the night rider cases on the Christian circuit court docket.

BURGLARY CHARGED

Against Man Identified as Brother of Hopkinsville Citizen.

JOE HAMMONDS, EX-CONVICT

And Chas. Moss Being Held at Princeton, Ind., for Investigation.

A Princeton, Ind., dispatch to the Evansville Courier says: C. B. Hammonds came here Tuesday from Hopkinsville, Ky., and identified one of the strangers held here for the Fort Branch burglary as his brother, Joe Hammonds, an ex convict. From the brother it was learned that the prisoner was convicted in Oklahoma nine years ago on a charge of grand larceny and was sent up for fourteen years. Two years ago, after serving seven years in the state prison, he in some manner made his escape and his whereabouts since that time have been unknown to the family or officers.

Hammonds, alias Johnson, told his brother that his companion, who gave his name as Charles Moss, was recently paroled from the state prison at Michigan City, and it is believed the name under which he is known is assumed.

This afternoon Hammonds, the prisoner, and his brother accompanied Sheriff Skelton to the vicinity of Fort Branch where a rifle and some clothing stolen from the Fort Branch stores Saturday night were found where the men had secreted them.

Atlanta has a Supposed "Jack the Ripper."

Atlanta, Ga., July 12.—The eighth negro woman to be murdered here in as many weeks by a supposed "Jack the Ripper," was slain on a street corner some time last night. Her body was found this morning by men going to work. Her throat was cut. She has not been identified.

On seven Saturday nights proceeding last week a negro woman was accosted on the street and slain by a powerful negro with a knife. Last Saturday another woman was attacked but succeeded in escaping.

The negro population of Atlanta is greatly wrought up. Many of the women are staying in nights. It is believed that the murderer is insane.

Auburn, N. Y., July 14.—A gigantic wave on Owasco Lake swept Miss Adelaide McCarthy, 18 years old, and her cousin, Edward George Burke, 22 years old, of Philadelphia, from the grasp of rescuers to death in the lake last night. Burke, a good swimmer, had battled for the life of his companion for half an hour, and was preparing to assist her to the hands of four men in a motor boat when the wave swept them away.

Two Men From the General's County Put on the State.

Louisville, Ky., 14.—After he had been nominated for governor at the state republican convention in session here, Judge E. C. O'Rear of Mount Sterling, Ky., addressed the convention, saying that he would not accept the nomination unless the man chosen to run on the ticket was in sympathy with all his views. A sharp contest for the nomination for lieutenant-governor followed, in which L. L. Bristow of Georgetown was chosen over E. S. Helburn of Middlesboro. The convention nominated the following ticket:

THE Administration of Estates!

There is no more sacred duty that can devolve upon man, than the custody of money not his own. When, by reason of ill health or old age, men find it impossible to properly manage their valuable interests, and thereby to protect those whom they must leave behind them, it becomes necessary for them to seek another, who, representing them, can safely be entrusted with their property, and who will conscientiously inspect their wishes and anxieties.

Other.

Austin, Tex.,—Missouri twins married Texas twins at San Marcos. thirty miles south of here. The brides were Alma and Alta Moore and the bridegrooms Leland and Loran Tablor of Adrian, Mo. An interesting feature of the wedding is that the brides resemble each other so closely that intimate friends cannot tell them apart and the bridegrooms look as much alike as two peas. The brides were dressed alike, as were the bridegrooms. To distinguish one from the other different colored flowers were worn.
The two couples left together on a bridal trip and will be at home in Adrian, Mo., in about two weeks.
They will occupy adjoining new houses exactly alike.

The circumstances of the courtship are romantic. The young men heard about a year ago of the twin girls and this led to correspondence and exchange of photographs. Last Christmas the young men came to see the girls and became engaged.

Not a Day in Bed.

Gramling, S. C.—In a letter from Gramling, Mrs. Lula Walden says:
"I was so weak before I began taking Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Since taking it, I do all the housework for my family of nine, and have not been in bed a day.
Cardui is the greatest remedy for women, on earth." Weak women need Cardui. It is the ideal woman's tonic, because it is especially adopted for women's needs. It relieves backache, headache, dragging feelings, and other female misery. Try Cardui. A few doses will show you what it can do for you. It may be just what you want.

JOHN P. SULLIVANHEADS THE ELKS

New Orleans Man is Chosen Grand Exalted Ruler.

Atlantic city, N. J., July 11.—Terminating the closest campaign in the history of the order, the grand lodge of Elks this afternoon elected John Patrick Sullivan of New Orleans grand exalted ruler, but the remarkable race made by Charles Rasbury of Dallas, Tex., for the office made the result long in doubt. Sullivan received 814 of the 1,602 votes cast; Rasbury, 549, and Arthur Moreland of New York, editor of the Elks Antler, polled 233. Willard
Ticknor of Buffalo received 8 votes.
Tullis Wright, a past exalted ruler of Philadelphia lodge, who attempted to win the office of esteemed loyal knight got but 498 votes, while Frank A. King of Providence, who was pushed into the fight when Wright's candidacy became known, polled 899.

ised a special line of good pictures.

GOV. SMITH WILLBE THE SENATOR

Separate Ballot in the Legislature Is Decisive.

Atlanta, Ga., July 11.—Gov. Hoke
Smith will go to the United States senate to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator A. S. Clay.

A total vote of 127 was cast for Governor Smith today in the two houses of the general assembly, balloting separately for senator. A vote of 115 is necessary to elect on joint ballot. Mr. Smith failed of election today only by two votes in the senate, he receiving 21 of the 23 votes necessary to a choice. His friends declare that the vote will be practically unanimous at the joint session tomorrow.

The contest for the governorship, which is expected soon to be vacant as a result of the balloting for senator has begun to take shape. John M. Slaton, president of the state senate, who by virtue of his position will be governor in the interim between the resignation of Gov. Smith and the election of his successor, and who was expected to be a candidate to succeed Gov. Smith, simplified the situation somewhat today by announcing that he would not be a candidate for governor, but that he would support former Gov. Joseph M. Brown for that office. It is stated in many quarters tonight that should ex Gov. Brown announce himself a candidate for the governorship he will have little opposition.
He has so far declined to commit himself, however, in regard to the governorship.

WILLIAM JOLTS HIM

New Mississippi Senator Handles Joe Bailey.

Washington, D. C. July 11.—Steel clashed and sparks flew this afternoon in the senate when Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi and Senator Bailey of Texas joined in debate over the Canadian reciprocity bill, to which the senator from Texas had offered the free list bill as a rider to kill the pact.

It is tradition here that Bailey has had the senate bluffed and that none, or next to none, have had the temerity to measure lances with the Texan. Evidently, this tradition has perished with the advent of new blood into the upper branch of congress. Mr. Williams, formerly minority leader of the house, is one of the new senators, and all Washington learned this afternoon that he does not stand in awe of Senator Bailey. In fact, the attitude of the Mississippian was that of spanking a fine but wayward boy.

Senator Bailey, in his argument against reciprocity, took position that it was unfair to remove the duty from raw materials without removing it also from materials manufactured from such raw materials.

Senator Williams, when he could get the floor, went after the Texan in a scathing, drawing style, and every utterance of his brilliant tongue cut like a knife. He began by admitting and extolling the wonderful talents of the senator from Texas, yet he declared "they are not being used for the benefit of the party of which he is a member or for the good of the country of which he is a citizen."

Mr. Williams, with withering sarcasm, said he hoped Senator Bailey
"would not regard himself as the only democrat at either end of the capitol. Nobody will dispute that he has a right to claim that he is parexcellence a democrat," continued Senator Williams, "but he is not the democratic party—not one of us." Williams touched upon the sublimely disdainful manner in which the Texan referred to shortcomings of members of his party, and commented upon the "school-masterful way" in which Senator Bailey "taught democracy to the party of which nine-tenths of the members disagreed with him." Mr. Williams deplored the fact that Bailey's great intellectual system was so sadly infected with "the free raw material microbe."

Senator Williams spoke for the pact, saying the democrats were fighting a great oppressive system from every ground. He charged that Bailey's tariff arguments pleased republicans only and disappointed democrats.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan (tried to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.
It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war: they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

MOTHER SAVES HER INFANT

Chicago Woman in Motor Wreck Shields Baby but Her Skull Is Fractured.

To save the life of her baby Mrs. Grace Arney risked her own life in a motor car smashup in Chicago. The mother was thrown 20 feet from the car and carried home unconscious, her skull fractured and with internal injuries. The baby escaped dangerous injury. In the accident eight were injured, five being children.

Harry Arney, secretary and treasurer of a publishing company, who was driving the car, failed to see a rapidly moving Evanston avenue street car as he was crossing that thoroughfare. The street car struck the front of the machine and tossed it back a dozen feet, throwing the women and children of the party to the pavement. Although Mrs. Arney's head struck the pavement with great force, she was still holding the child close to her bosom when aid reached her. All the injured will recover except Mrs. Arney, who is believed to be fatally injured.

MUST NOT ALTER DECALOGUE

Writer Says to Modify the Commandments by Omission Would Be Dangerous Precedent.

To modify by omission any part of canonical Scripture, particularly the Decalogue, would be a precedent fraught with danger. The meaning of the Bible is often warped in the effort to make it harmonize with people's prejudices, but the full text must remain untouched. The fear of ancient copyists to alter one "jot or tittle" of the sacred writing is what has brought the Scriptures down to us as free from error as they are. The common supposition of scholars that the original form of the Decalogue consisted merely of the bare commands, the explanatory comments being added subsequently, may be true; but that would not justify the Church of England making the change proposed. A quite different proposition is this from the modification of a credal statement. —Leslie's.

ELECTROCUTE EGGS.

It is possible that the peculiar taste of a cold storage egg, which is something not easy to mistake, may be removed if experiments now being made by an electrical company are successful. Says the Inventive Age: "It is claimed that when fresh eggs are placed in cold storage the eggs are alive; that they are slowly frozen to death and that in spite of the preservation qualities of the ice the eggs do not taste good when cooked. It is now believed that by electrocuting the eggs the natural fresh taste may be retained and not removed when the eggs are placed in cold storage. The eggs are 'killed' by placing a metal cap on each end of the egg and then throwing on a pressure of 500 volts."

SIGNIFICANT NOTICE.

Richard Croker, the day of his departure for his Irish home, said to a New York reporter:

"It is the desire for freedom that sends so many Americans and so many millions of dollars abroad every June. The Puritanical laws of America enslave us. These laws, with their total misconception of freedom and of enjoyment, are well exemplified in a notice board I once saw in a New England park. The board said:

"Pleasure Grounds. Notice. These grounds are for pleasure only. No games or play allowed."

WHAT CONSCIENCE DOES.

It is not history which teaches consistence to be honest; it is the conscience which educates history. Fact is corrupting, it is we who correct it by the persistence of our ideal. The soul moralizes the past in order not to be demoralized by it. Like the alchemists of the middle ages, she finds in the crucible of experience only the gold that she herself has poured into it.

GOLD MINES AND MEN.

George Gold, at a dinner at Georgian court, said wittily of a suspected gold mine.

"Gold mines are like human beings—they can't be judged by their appearances. You know what Frank R. Stockton used to say about judging by appearances:

"Don't trust a man because he carries a silk umbrella—he may have left a cotton one in its place."

Pat a Ghost's Debt.

An amusing story of an old woman's superstition came before Judge Drummond at Hallsboro, county Cavan, in the course of an action brought by Miss Anne Brady against a local farmer named Connell.

The plaintiff said that in June last the defendant told her that the ghost of her brother Phil who had been dead 26 years, was haunting her because he forgot to pay defendant 70 shillings he owed him. The witness was frightened and paid the money, which the defendant swore on "the poker and tongue" was due. The defendant said he, after Phil died, walked nine miles to the wake to see if he could get an opportunity of mentioning the debt, but he was not given a chance. He denied having said anything whatever about Phil's ghost. His honor, in giving judgment for the plaintiff, said he firmly believed the story.

Bulgaria believes in fringes, and they are over all with the rare exceptions when the underskirt, always of the best of white linen, may be scalloped at the bottom and even then the fringe effect is used in the over tunic, for the gathering of the many threads suggests to the wearer the numbers of their nations, as is their peculiar red dyed reminder of their blood, and the flowers, and grains, and fruits, embroidered on their gowns represent their industry.

CURRENT COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

The talk of a platform convention of the Democratic party is being revived. The Kentuckian was an advocate of a convention at the proper time, now that the ticket has been nominated, a convention to adopt a platform that might or might not fit the candidates would make the party the laughing stock of the state. The candidate for Governor has already published a list of the public measures he is willing to take position upon and any attempt to him out upon the questions upon which he has not defined his attitude would only result in dissension and perhaps embarrassment. There is a great opportunity for the Democratic party to take square issue with the Republican candidate's known views on law and order, but it is not assured that a convention would do this and to meet and fail to express real sound convictions on this vital issue would do more harm than good. The personal views of Judge O'Leary have been a hot issue to the front and many Republicans will vote for McCreary, unless he too shows to be in sympathy with night riding. Should a convention of Democrats dodge this issue, condone the crimes of the lawless element or condemn the course of Gov. Wilson in suppressing lawlessness with the military, the goods would be full of law and order. Democrats and Republicans who would refuse to go to the polls at all. Unless the party is ready to take a courageous position on all public questions, it is far better to let the candidates make their own issues.

There are "23" planks in the Republican platform and preparatory may be made for the "Skiddoo" in November.

Where was Bob Cook when the cyclone hit?

It is said that cats have killed 5,000 little chickens in Danville this year.

The Republicans have fixed it this time so no Law and Order Democrat can vote the Republican ticket no matter how much displeased he may be with his own ticket.

Mr. McCreary may just as well take a bold stand for law and order. One thing is certain the night riders will vote for O'Rear, from the general down.

The Old Summer Girl.

Backward, turn backward, oh Time in your right, and give us a maiden dressed proper and right. We are so weary of switches and rats, hairy Burke clusters and peach basket hats. Wads of jute hair in a horrible pile stacked on their heads to the height of a mile. Something is wrong with the maidens' we fear. Give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the girls we once knew of yore, whose curls didn't come from a hairdressing store. Maidens who dressed with a sense and view. And just as Dame Nature intended them to. Give us a girl with a figure hard won, and fashion divinely by nature alone. Feminine styles getting fiercer each year. On, give us the girls as they used to appear. Sterling (Kans.) Journal.

AGE PENSIONS A FAILURE

Of 17,000,000 French Citizens Entitled to Them, Not Two Per Cent Have Registered.

Not two per cent. of the 17,000,000 Frenchmen and Frenchwomen who are entitled to register for benefits under the national old-age pension law, adopted last year, have done so. The working classes, whom the law was designed to aid, have as a body ignored it. Out of 20,000 persons at Rennes coming within the operations of the statute, 800 have taken papers; at Limoges, 18 out of 30,000. In Marseilles about 15,000 have applied out of a possible 150,000, and at Eprenay 1,300 out of 6,000.

The ministry of labor announced that since the law is compulsory those abstaining must ultimately comply and that they are only placing themselves at a disadvantage by delay. The mayors in many municipalities have written the officers of the trade unions asking their influence in persuading registration.

One principal reason for treating the old-age pension scheme with indifference is that the pensions beginning at sixty-five years of age are small. The man close to that age now will be entitled to $20 a year.

HOSPITAL IS A SMALL BOX

Complete Model of Room, With Doll Patient and Nurse, Made by Two Women.

Did you ever see a hospital room 11x2 feet? Two girls in the home nursing class, taught by Miss Ula Han, have made one.

The room is made of an ordinary box 11x2 feet. The walls are covered with dark green paper. The woodwork and floor are stained with an oak stain, giving a pleasing finish. The floor has no covering except two medium-sized rugs made of tan raffia, touched with green. The furniture resembles that in most hospitals, the simple bed, chiffonier, chairs and tables of white. The screen, suggested by Miss Dow as being handy for a sick room, is also of white. All the pictures for the walls suggest quiet, and rest. The window curtains are of dainty white material that may be washed easily.

The most original ideas are the dolls, one dressed as a nurse and the other as a patient in bed. The bed, if you investigate carefully, will be found made according to the rules of bed making in the best hospitals. Miss Clara Berg and Miss Zephierine Towne made the model and equipped it.—Kansas Industrialist.

SUPPRESSING NEEDLESS NOISE.

A petition signed by a long list of night workers and others has been presented to the Somerville (Mass.) city council asking that action be taken to prohibit unnecessary noises during the daytime. The petitioners want an ordinance adopted that will prohibit the crying of peddlers and vegetable vendors, which they contend is disturbing and serves no real purpose.

The percentage of night workers may be larger than ordinary in Somerville and thus make disturbing noises during the daytime particularly annoying in that city. But it is not likely that the percentage of those who are ill and irritable is any greater in the Massachusetts town than in most other cities. A noise that will awaken a worker who is trying to sleep in the daytime would be trying to a sick person, day or night, and racking to the nerves of the irritable at any time. If it is unnecessary it should be prohibited in any city, not merely for the benefit of night workers, but in the interest of all.—St. Paul Dispatch.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

Providence reports the first of the season's cases of infantile paralysis, and so the summer season is early ushered in grimly enough. The epidemic of last summer was impressive. What has been learned from it? The promise of a successful preventive or cure for this distressful disease has not been redeemed, and though hope is constantly at hand the experts in research will have something to offer, the menace is tragically constant.—Boston Advertiser.

TENT SHOW

Kadell-Kritchfield Company
Coming For all Next Week.

An excellent dramatic company will show all next week on the rear lot of the Tabernacle, on West Seventh street. The Elizabethtown News says:

"The Kadell-Kritchfield show, which played a week's engagement in this city during the month of June last year and gave such excellent satisfaction, has again made a week's engagement and will arrive Monday, July 17, and present an entire new program on each night throughout the week. The show does not need any introduction to the public whatever, as its presentations last year speak in loud advertising terms in behalf of it without the use of printers' ink. The program will be entirely different from last year, and as the personnel of the show is made up of good artists, the public may expect a rare treat in the amusement line.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Having attended the performances given by the Kadell & Kritchfield Shows, playing in our city for the week, it affords me pleasure to bear testimony to the fact that they have one of the cleanest, best and most entertaining shows of its kind that it has been my pleasure to see. The program is clean from start to end. The acts and specialties are all first-class, and any number of the program is worth the price of admission to all.

Having had more or less dealings with the management of the show, I have found them uniformly courteous and gentlemanly. It gives me pleasure to commend these good folks to any community in which they may find themselves.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week there will be a reunion of the Lander family at Salubria Springs, which was recently called by Rev. David Lander, of Florida.

Of Land For Street Extension Ordered by Council.

The Council met in adjourned session Wednesday night with all present except Councilman Lebkuecher. The meeting was for unfinished business brought over from the regular session.

The principal matter was the consideration of an ordinance condemning land for street purposes, through the lots of Rachel Washington, John McLaughens and Lizzie Murphy, colored people residing in the line of the proposed extension of West Fifteenth street. After a lengthy discussion the ordinance was passed by unanimous vote, after citizens had agreed to pay all costs above $500.

MERELY OBEYED THE RULES

How the Late Tom Johnson, in Early Life, Squirreled Out of Very Tight Place.

When the late Tom Johnson started in life he drove a horse car in Indianapolis.

One night there was a big storm of sleet and snow and the tracks were almost hidden. Johnson was on the night shift, and in the storm he drove his car two blocks beyond a curve before he realized the car was off the tracks and slipping along on the ice.

He tried to pull the car back and failed. Thereupon he jumped out the horses, drove them back to the barn and left the car where it was.

Next day the superintendent called him. "Here, Johnson," he said, "what do you mean by driving a car off the track and then leaving it in the street?"

"Why," Johnson replied slowly, "this is the rule for drivers and conductors."

"In the rules for drivers and conductors?" roared the superintendent. "Where, I'd like to know?"

"Certainly," replied Johnson. "It says always to be polite to passengers. Do you remember the kind of a night last night was? Well, there was a lady on my car who didn't have an umbrella and she lived two blocks from this curve. So I drove her home."—Saturday Evening Post.

NOT ALTOGETHER A DEFEAT

Bride Had Made One Reservation She Intended to Live Up To.

A clergyman tells the following story: He was marrying a young couple. All went well until he reached that part of the service where the bride has to say, "I will love, honor and obey."

The first part of the sentence, she would say all right, but on reaching the word "obey" she refused to say it, but made some kind of noise very like it.

The clergyman again repeated it, but she still refused to pronounce the word distinctly.

The parson now became rather vexed about this and informed the young lady that unless she said it correctly this time he would refuse to marry them.

The bride, rather crestfallen, again repeated the words, but on coming to the fatal word she again hesitated, but eventually pronounced it distinctly. As they were on the way to the vestry she whispered to the minister. "Well, I shan't shine his shoes."

Making Use of the Rhine.

The German Rhine is commercially the most important stream in the world. It furnishes a most illuminating contrast to the decadent Mississippi.

The United States has expended more money in the twenty years ended in 1907 on the most important stretch of the Mississippi, 206 miles between St. Louis and Cairo, than the German central government has expended in the improvement of the Rhine from Strassburg to the frontier of Holland, a distance of 355 miles.

Yet the amount of tonnage handled on this portion of the Mississippi in 1908 was 374,093 tons, while that on the Rhine in the same year was between 40,000,000 and 45,000,000 tons, an amount from eighty to 100 times as great.—American Review of Reviews.

How It Was Remarkable.

An elderly gentleman of rural appearance had hardly seated himself in the crosstown street car, says Judge, when a young lady who had followed him in approached him.

"Sir, did you lose a five-dollar bill?" she asked.

For a moment the farmer observed her with a surprised, curious look, then said convincingly: "Yes, ma'am, I did."

"Then here it is," said she, handing the bill to him. "I picked it up behind you from the car floor."

"Thank ye very much, young lady, for your honesty. This is a most remarkable happening!"

"Oh, I don't think so, sir! I believe every one should return the money in such a case as this. What is there so remarkable about it?"

"Why, I lost my five-dollar bill two years ago!"

CASE SYSTEM OF TEACHING

Almost Universal in Study of Law—Now Largely Used in Economics Courses.

Radical changes in the teaching of economics, consisting of the introduction of the case system, have been made by the department of political economy at the University of Chicago, says the News Letter of that institution.

The case system was first employed in the teaching of law and is now almost universally used in that subject. The object in introducing this method into the teaching of economics is to make the student think for himself and solve problems in economics as he would in mathematics.

The department at Chicago has prepared a syllabus or outline which consists of about 1,700 problems, and is now engaged in printing a bi-weekly bulletin made up exclusively of original cases or material descriptive of our industrial organization.

At the final examination in the course students are told to bring note books, text books, outlines and anything they wish and are allowed to use them freely. The examination consists entirely of problems.

The experience of the department proves the present method most successful, resulting in more individual work on the part of the students and giving them a better understanding of the subject.

Automobilist, Slayer of Pet Dog, Gets Hot Shot From theirate Owner.

Joseph P. Sherer, while impersonating Booker T. Washington at the Westminster Civic league's annual "gridiron" dinner, told a humorous "experience" while "automobile riding," which, he said, illustrates the sarcasm which a woman is capable of when occasion demands.

"We were going along at an awful speed," he said, speaking in negro dialect. "I didn't see the dog, but I heard his 'k-yi,' so I ordered the chauffeur to stop. Going back, we found an irate lady standing over her dead dog—one of the ugliest dogs you ever saw."

"She met us with a tirade of remarks, telling us in no uncertain terms what she thought of us and automobilists in general, finishing up by calling us the murderers of her dog. It was then that I thought I would pacify her."

"Madam," I said, "I will replace your dog."
"Sir," she said, in a freest tone of voice, "you flatter yourself."—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

FOR NEW ERA IN HOME LIFE

King's College for Women in London Will Give Girls Training for Domestic Science.

A new era in home life is inaugurated by the formation of a national scheme for the endowment of home science in connection with King's College for Women (University of London). Altogether, one-half million dollars is required, and of that one-quarter million dollars has already been subscribed privately.

"By insuring that in future every girl's education shall include some knowledge of the science which affects her home problems and some practice of the domestic arts, the whole standard of home life would be raised," point out the promoters.

Therefore King's College for Women has opened its doors to special courses for training women in the study of the science of the household. It is hoped in that way to insure for the schools a continual supply of teachers qualified to give girls the necessary instruction, and by that means to mitigate the present gigantic yearly waste in infant loss and loss to the nation by preventable disease due to ignorance.—London Chronicle.

PROGENY OF SIAMESE TWINS

Descendants of Famous Eng and Chang Live in North Carolina and Are Numerous.

After traveling pretty much the world over, Eng and Chang Bunker, the celebrated Siamese twins, settled at Mount Airy, N. C., and spent the last years of their lives.

For years they had been star attractions in P. T. Barnum's "Greatest Show on Earth." Retiring, they resided near Mount Airy for many years, having married sisters, and each was the father of ten children. Over one hundred grandchildren, all healthy and normally developed, live in this section and are highly respected people. Two of the sons are among the most prosperous farmers of the town. One of the daughters is a talented singer, and the families have intermarried with cultured people throughout the section.—Frank P. Fogg, in National Magazine.

BERLIN BANK IS FOR WOMEN

Managers, Clerks and Depositors in This Institution Are All of the Gentler Sex.

Berlin has a bank exclusively for women. It is managed by women, with women clerks. It receives only women depositors and it lends money only to women. It has been running for less than a year, but has made such profits that it has encouraged the founders, and the prospects are that the scope of the business will be increased greatly within the next year. As wars and emigrations have caused a surplus of women in Germany, the bank has an unusually good field. Many women have small businesses. They often need bank accommodation and they have found the women's bank serves them more quickly and more cheaply than banking institutions run by men. Anna Hoffman is the manager of the bank. "I never knew," she said, "until we launched this bank, how suspicious of women's reliability and integrity women themselves are. Half of the women who hesitate to come to our support say they don't trust a woman. We have done a good work and we have rescued many tradeswomen from usurers."

A great New York minister has recently published a series of discourses in book form and one may read half way through the volume before he comes upon a word that is not common to the simplest speech. Yet the book in its diction is powerful. There is such a thing as working for the language, and such a thing as letting the language work for you. The master of English does the latter.

An Attentive Class.
The College of France, founded in Paris by Francis I., offers at the present day not only strictly academic instruction, but opportunities for the higher education in general. The following anecdote, from The Colour of Paris, shows how far the college carries its scrupulousness. Every scientific subject, even the most abstruse, will continue to be taught there as long as one solitary individual in all Europe desires to pursue it. Certain courses are followed by two or three persons only. They tell the story of a professor of mathematics. This professor, who was extremely absent-minded, had lectured for a whole year to only one pupil.

GERMLESS AGE IS COMING

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis Declares He Sees the End of Disease Within a Century.

Basing his prediction on the achievements of medical science in the past, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis declares that another century will see the physician victor over every disease germ in existence. The progress of medical science in the last two centuries, he said recently, has already given to the average individual born into the world 21 additional years of life and there is reason to hope that, barring accidents, most men will soon live one hundred years.

To illustrate the progress that has been made, Dr. Hillis pointed out that every third person who witnessed Washington's inauguration was disfigured by smallpox and that in those days every other baby born died within the year.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Simplicity of Speech.
Whether or not the traveler is right who contends that 50 words are enough for a man's practical needs, his theory of an abridged vocabulary for everyday use is in line with the tendency of speech in this country. We are simplifying the language to the extent of preferring the simpler forms of expression, both in our writing and our speaking. It is purifying our speech and improving our diction. The master of simple English, who can write or speak in terms of the most commonplace language, is the most effective. Even eloquence may be well defined as simplicity.

A great New York minister has recently published a series of discourses in book form and one may read half way through the volume before he comes upon a word that is not common to the simplest speech. Yet the book in its diction is powerful. There is such a thing as working for the language, and such a thing as letting the language work for you. The master of English does the latter.

This professor, who was extremely absent-minded, had lectured for a whole year to only one pupil.

He was perfectly satisfied that it should be so, but it occurred to him one day that he ought to congratulate his rare disciple, and he accordingly did so.
"Monsieur does not recognize me," replied the pupil. "I am monsieur's coachman, and I always wait here until monsieur has finished his lecture."—Youth's Companion.

Democracy.
"Democracy implies infinity. Men are declared to be equal because it is discovered that all men, the great as well as the greatest, have or may have access to the infinite. The obvious disparities become insignificant in view of this great commonness. Infinity plus a million is seen to be no more than infinity plus one. If it were not for Democracy religion would be inconceivable; if a man's soul is measurable and transient, Democracy is ridiculous."—Charles Ferguson.

Summit, N. C.—In a letter received from this place, Mr. J. W. We tried physicians for years, without relief. After these treatments all failed, she took Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl." Cardui, as a tonic for women, has brought remarkable results. It relieves pain and misery and is the ideal tonic for young and old. Try it. At druggists.

ALL ALIKE TO MOGULS

Henderson Fares no Better Than Harrisburg at Champions Hands.

FIRST GAME A HUMMER

Three More Contests With the Henderson Team Next Week.

The Henderson games which began Wednesday were another series of triumphs for the Champions. The game Wednesday was the best of the entire season and was won by the Moguls in the tenth inning.

Henderson had 3 to 2 up to the ninth, when Cooper came up and got a two-bagger, advanced on Huhn's sacrifice and scored on McArthur's hit by a slide that will go down in baseball history as a beaut. This tied the score and in the tenth inning Nairn reached the second sack and Beasley was sent to run for him. There were two outs and it looked blue. Jones hit to short and Johnson's wild throw gave Beasley just enough time to get home while Stelle was picking up the ball. McArthur and Wahl were the pitchers. In Thursday's game the result was the same by a score of 2 to 1, the game being dull and listless in spite of its seeming closeness. Yon and Summers, Beck and Smith were the batteries.

The third game was played yesterday. Today, the Moguls have an off day and go to Henderson tomorrow for the three last games.

KITTY MEWS

Clarksville now has a new second baseman named Lathrobe and is playing Zimmerman at third base.

Poland, Cairo's new center fielder, made two home runs in Monday's game with Paducah.

"Father" Nairn is certainly clouting the sphere, at the present. Can you count the two-baggers he has been lining-out of late?

As to Umpire Beck, he is as good as we could expect to get. Of course, he is not perfect, but who ever saw a perfect umpire. We are satisfied with him.

Lyons is batting around 322. Several of our men are in the 300 class.

In spite of all that has been done to beat Hopkinsville out of the pennant, the Moguls have kept their lead easily; the Hoptawn aggregation has the banner cinched.

Henderson has a good strong ball club, and there is no reason why the team should not be one of the contenders for the last half season's play.

Nairn seems to have used good head-work when he let Zimmerman go, put Summers on third, and Carter on second. Matters are moving well. There is no friction between the players, and the team is a fine ball.

Some persons criticised the local management for letting Zimmerman go. Vincennes even goes so far as to say we got stung. Maybe we did, but we have not felt the sting, as yet. Summers covers about twice the territory that the former third-sacker did, and is not playing on his brother's reputation. He plays third far better than he did second. Cooper is the best second-baseman we have had and is batting higher than Zimmerman. So, it is hard for us to see where we got stung.

It is very easy to boast while winning, we know, but please show us pitchers as good as ours.

What has struck Clarksville? Did they use up all their ginger against us? We are sorry to see them fall below Vincennes.

Secretary Abernathy is compiling a record of the Moguls' batting and fielding averages, which will be published at the close of this half.

Wednesday, Kesling struck-out the first two times up. He generally gets a base on balls.

Of late, the opposing pitchers have been walking Summers many times.

Huhn is as steady as ever. He seems to get hurt more that before, however.

No game this afternoon.

Doing Well, Thank You.

The game last Wednesday with Henderson, which the Moguls won, gave Hopkinsville her first pennant. With practically the same team, throughout the season, we started with Manager Nairn has succeeded in winning the flag. It is a greater success than most of us appreciate; we have been so accustomed to Hopkinsville winning this year, that it does not surprise us when the pennant is cinched.

Only once were the Moguls out of first position, and then only for a short time. Although we have lost 17 games, at no time while in the first division were we hard pressed by the club in second position. It has been an easy fight straight through.

The only position which has been hard to fill is that of second base. We first had Bosche, who proved too weak, and was quickly removed. Clarke took his place, and played a fairly good game. However, he was weak on balls coming directly at him. He covered a world of ground, tried hard after every ball in his territory, and batted moderately well. His only weakness, however, caused his release. Manager Nairn then tried Summers, Yon's friend from Altoona, Pa. He did not do as well as Clarke on second, so some persons thought, and wanted him to be released. But Nairn believed he had a good player and would not let the boy go, but tried him on third. This proved to be a success. Summers plays the last sack as if he were brought up on it, and is batting fine.

Cooper, the Clarksville man, who Vincennes claims was a lemon to us, takes care of second better than we expected any man to do. With this station finally filled and no other position weakened, we are in superb condition.

John Nairn is to be complimented on the fine team he has turned out and the strong winning fight he has made. Behind him, we must give credit to the officers and directors of the club.

Here, in Hopkinsville, we play ball for the sport of it, and not as a money making organization. That is one of the secrets of our success. Financially, we are successful because the park is so near in town, and the people are live fans.

Curious Case.

Struck by lightning while working 1,500 feet under ground, at 1 o'clock this morning, James Conroy, employed in the Courtdale tunnel of the Kingston Coal Company, is in such a precarious condition that his recovery is not expected.

He was at work in his chamber in the tunnel, when a heavy storm passed over the valley.

He did not know there was a storm until his chamber was filled by a blinding light and he was knocked unconscious. The lightning had followed the air current into the colliery workings.—Hartford, Ky., Herald.
